(Wedding was April 30, 1927)*

Feed him good, laugh when he is cross. and about all things learn not to talk to much, if he wants to talk.
Rea

Make him hot biscuits for breakfast every day.
Clifford.

Always be sweet and never both get mad at the same time. David.

Have meal on time.
be kind & sweet
every day. Myrtle R.

Be good and meet him with a smile. and have his meals on time.
Mrs. Nelson

Feed him good, laugh when he is cross and about all things learn not to talk too much if he wants to talk.

Rea

Make him hot biscuits for breakfast every day.

Clifford

Always be sweet and never both get mad at the same time.

David

Have Meal on time... be kind & sweet every day.

Myrtle R.

Be good and meet him with a smile and have his meals on time.

Mrs. Nelson

Always be neat and clean - meet him at the door with a kiss & hug tell him his meals are all ready.

Mrs Blason.

Call for him at noon, have a hot dinner, stay at home all the time and answer his calls. Georgia Whitaker.

Remember the way to a man's heart is through his appiater. and never say you must do this or that. if you do you are sure to have a spat

The way to a man's heart?
Oh, how easy and sometimes difficult, but the way "I" have found is through his ??? channel. Oh just keep your charming and winning way.
May the four winds blow you two a blue bird of happiness Anna Marie.

Grab him young,
Treat him rough,
Tell him nothing.

Remember the Good old days of yore.

Lovingly
Ena Ferguson.

Humor him, let him have his own way as long as it doesn't interfere with your own.
never ask him too many questions.
Best Wishes - Edna Chandler

Start him in right by having your own way. Feed him plenty and just be the dear sweet Ina that you've always been and he will be happy.

Now take a fool's advice and don't take in too many wild parties, cause he might get jealous. Always be the dear sweet Ina (as I know you) and you both will be happy.
Guess that's all the advice cause Audrey told me to quit.
<sup>I love you</sup>

Just be Sweet to him and be sure to bake
him all the biscuit
he wants.

When he leaves kiss him
When her returns kiss him

Marie Young

Always agree with him and make him think he is getting his own way even when you are making him do just what you want him to do.

Love him hard and don't ever get over your
"sweetheart days"

Mrs. Hardin

Always agree with him and make him think he is getting his own way even when are making him do just what you want him to do.

Love him hard and don't ever get over your "sweetheart days".

Mrs. Hardin

Always be kind and true. When things go wrong just look up and smile. Always keep yourself attractive and just as sweet as you can. Never ask him why he stays
out so late 'cause
if you do he might tell you a lie.
Have his meals ready
on time and lots
of good things to eat.
Always let him read his newspaper at the breakfast table, always have his clothes fixed and laundried. don't ask him to take you to the theater every nite, always let him take you where he likes. I love you

Well, Honey always be true and sweet to him - I hope you all the happiness in the world -

Babe Edwards.

Ina dear - always be as sweet to your husband as you have to all of us in the store - and he'll love you better than we do.

Honey Dear.

Don't ever let him leave the house without you at night or on Sunday eve. For you can't ever tell where he'll be or who he's with -

Love you both,

Audrey P.

Honey Dear:

Don't ever let him leave the house without you at night or on Sunday eve for you can't ever tell where he'll be or who he's with.

I love you both.
